Good friends can be and do many things for each other. I would like you to decide what some of those things are for today's circle topic, "What I Value Most in a Friend."

What do you and your friends say and do to make your friendships work, and to make them special? What qualities do you think are important in a friend? Do you value honesty? ...loyalty? ...listening? ...common interests? ...having time to be together? Think about it for a moment and, when you are ready, our topic is, "What I Value Most in a Friend."

Discussion Questions:

1. What are some of the main qualities that we value in friends?
2. How do you feel about your friend when he or she does or says something that you think is valuable to the friendship?
3. If you want your friends to behave in the ways we talked about, would be wise for you to do the same things? Why?
